

What gown + hood do you need for your ceremony?

UNDERGRADUATE	Is your ceremony in JULY?	YES	You only need the gown + hood + mortar board/soft cap for the degree you are receiving.
		NO	You need: 1) Your Commoners/Scholars gown + mortar board/soft cap. 2) The gown + hood + mortar board/soft cap for the degree you are receiving.

MA	You need the gown + hood + mortar board/soft cap for: 1) Your undergraduate degree 2) The Oxford MA
----	---

POSTGRADUATE	Have you already got a degree from Oxford?	YES	Have you got MORE THAN 1 degree from Oxford already? ¹	YES	You need the gown + hood + mortar board/soft cap for: 1) Your HIGHEST previous degree. 2) The degree you are receiving.
			NO	NO	You need the gown + hood + mortar board/soft cap for: 1) Your previous degree. 2) The degree you are receiving.
		NO	Has your previous degree been incorporated? ²	YES	You need the gown + hood + mortar board/soft cap for: 1) Your Oxford incorporated degree. 2) The degree you are receiving.
				NO	You need: 1) Your graduate gown + mortar board/soft cap. 2) The gown + hood + mortar board/soft cap for the degree you are receiving.

¹ If you have got the Oxford MA this counts in place of your undergraduate degree, and is not an additional qualification. Where you would normally wear your undergraduate academic dress, you would instead wear the MA gown + hood.

² If a student has already completed a degree at the University of Cambridge or University of Dublin, then depending on the qualification, she or he can be admitted to an equivalent degree at Oxford READ MORE - If you are unsure if you have had your degree incorporated then please email us.