

Legacy Notification Form

Although it is a private matter, if you have already included a legacy to LMH in your Will, or intend to do so, it would be helpful to know that you have done so. Accordingly, we invite those who pledge a legacy to the College to update us with their current intentions, to give us an opportunity to express our gratitude. Everyone who informs us that they have included a gift to LMH in their Will is invited to join the Beaufort Circle.

This pledge does not commit you in any way, but, as a statement of your current intention, it will help the College's long-term planning. It is entirely your choice how much detail you wish to disclose, but any detail you give will be treated in the strictest confidence.
